

CODE FIRST GIRLS APPLICATION TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The information you share with us as part of this application will be kept confidential and only shared with the Code First Girls staff for processing your application. Your information will not be used for any other purposes without your express permission.

If you wish to have your information deleted after processing, please email programmes@codefirstgirls.com.

SESSION RECORDINGS

By applying to this course, you consent to all live sessions being recorded for teaching, learning, and quality assurance purposes, including instructor training. While we encourage learners to keep their cameras on for an interactive experience, you can turn off your camera at any time if you prefer anonymity.

KEY POLICIES

By submitting your application, you confirm that you have read and agree to adhere to the following Code First Girls documents:

Code of Conduct

Social Media Policy

Bullying and Harassment Policy

Student Complaints Policy

Safeguarding: Learner Guidelines

COURSE ACCESSIBILITY, INCLUSION AND REASONABLE ADJUSTMENT(S)

It is the responsibility of learners to be aware of the support available from Code First Girls and to seek it when needed and/ or in line with the information below. It is the responsibility of the student to ensure that they have access to an appropriate learning environment, including any necessary technology and devices, in order to fully participate in the programme. Additionally, students are required to communicate any additional learning needs or requests for reasonable adjustments to the organisation at least two weeks in advance of the programme's commencement.

All requests for reasonable adjustments on advanced programmes will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis in accordance with our Reasonable Adjustment Policy. Adjustments deemed reasonable for both the student and the organisation will be implemented, where appropriate. In some cases, supporting medical evidence may be required to validate the request.
